3. If a contract between Company and customer provides for a reduction in the applicable contract capacity schedule, the amount of KVA calculated as provided in Section (b) of "Determination of Demand" below shall be adjusted according to the provisions of the contract.

TAX ADJUSTMENT:

Billings under this schedule may be increased by an amount equal to the sum of the taxes payable under the Gross Receipts, Franchise Fees and Compensating Tax Act and of all other taxes, fees, or charges (exclusive of ad valorem, state and federal income taxes) payable by utility and levied or assessed by any governmental authority on the public utility service rendered, or on the right or privilege of rendering the service, or on any object or event incidental to the rendition of the service.

DETERMINATION OF DEMAND:

For monthly billing purposes, KVA demand each month shall be the highest KVA of any of the following:

- (a) The highest totalized coincident KVA established by customer during a one-hour period during the current month.
- (b) 90% of the highest KVA determined pursuant to (a) above during the prior thirty-eight months ending with the current month, unless there has been a reduction in the contract capacity schedule provided by the contract between customer and the Company, in which event the highest KVA determined pursuant to (a) above during the prior thirty-eight months ending with current month, shall be reduced by the amount of reduction of the contract capacity schedule.
- (c) 2,000 KVA.
- (d) The minimum amount of capacity provided for in the contract capacity schedule incorporated in the contract between customer and Company, expressed in KVA including increases or decreases as provided by contract, if any.

A determination of demand as provided above shall be made for purposes of the minimum monthly bill each month throughout the period of any Initial Term or Additional Term of any contract, whether or not any demand has been established. KVA by definition may result from either leading or lagging KVAR.
